About the Zarzaur Law Triathlon Team

The Zarzaur Law Triathlon Team is a sponsored team of dedicated athletes who proudly represent Zarzaur Law, our charitable partners, and the endurance sports community. Membership is about far more than race results. Our athletes are selected because they demonstrate leadership, sportsmanship, integrity, and a commitment to making a positive impact both within our team and throughout our community.

The Zarzaur Law Team Values

Every member of the Zarzaur Law Triathlon Team is expected to represent our team and Zarzaur Law with professionalism, respect, and integrity. We believe our character is just as important as our performance.

Experienced Triathletes

Our team is composed of athletes with established triathlon experience who are committed to continued growth in the sport. Team members are expected to participate in designated races, attend team activities, and actively represent Zarzaur Law throughout the season.

Being a member of this team requires not only athletic ability, but also the time and commitment to fully participate in team events and responsibilities.

Outstanding Ambassadors

A Zarzaur Law Triathlon Team member represents more than themselves. Whether racing, training, volunteering, or interacting within the community, our athletes reflect the values of Zarzaur Law.

While many of our athletes are competitive, character—not podium finishes—is what defines our team.

We look for athletes who:

- Live a lifestyle centered on health, fitness, and a genuine passion for endurance sports.
- Treat fellow competitors, volunteers, race directors, and spectators with kindness and respect.
- Encourage others on the course, on the road, and in the water.
- Compete with determination while displaying humility, professionalism, and good sportsmanship.
- Represent Zarzaur Law with pride through their words, actions, and attitude—both on and off the race course.

Perhaps our most important team value is this: We compete alongside one another—not against one another.

Although triathlon is an individual sport, the Zarzaur Law Triathlon Team is built on teamwork. We expect our athletes to encourage, support, and celebrate one another's successes. Teammates should never view one another as rivals. Instead, we foster an environment where every member races their own race, strives to become the best version of themselves, and helps elevate those around them. A positive attitude, humility, and genuine respect for teammates are essential to maintaining the culture that defines our team.

Community-Minded Leaders

Service is a cornerstone of Zarzaur Law. In addition to representing Zarzaur Law at races and community events, our team proudly supports our adopted charities, FavorHouse of Northwest Florida and Gulf Coast Kid's House. Team members are expected to participate in designated volunteer opportunities, fundraising events, and other community initiatives throughout the season.

We believe that making a difference extends beyond the finish line. Thank you for your interest in the Zarzaur Law Triathlon Team. We look forward to learning more about you and those who share our passion for triathlon, service, teamwork, and representing Zarzaur Law with excellence.
